With the tour operator, no two trips are ever the same. We specialise in small group tours to exclusive breathtaking locations. carrying a maximum of six (6) people per vehicle.

Our guides are passionate and very experienced, utilizing their bush skills and wealth of local knowledge to ensure your trip runs smoothly. As well as being fun and informative, the tour operator will introduce you to the wonders of the Indigenous culture, flora and fauna, botany, geology and history of our totally amazing continent. As we are flexible, we can personalize our tours to individual needs of our passengers.

FOOD On our tours we provide you with all meals as coded in the itinerary. There is always plenty of food at mealtimes and we try to cater to individual tastes where we can, by asking you questions on our booking form about food.

Continental breakfast daily consists of fruit juice, cereals, tea & coffee, toast and jams. Lunch and dinner will also be provided as indicated per itinerary. We also provide storage for cold drinks and foods as we are travelling.

HOW YOU WILL TRAVEL Small, Late Model, 4WD vehicles with some special modifications; all vehicles have comfortable, forward-facing seats and are fully Air Conditioned.

SMOKING As per Government Regulations, smoking is not allowed in vehicles. Ample stops allow time for "smoking breaks" en route.

TRANSFER OF TOUR DATES Should you wish to transfer to another of our tours, a handling fee of $150 may be charged, plus any flight change fees.

UNUSED TOUR SECTORS If a passenger does not join a tour as booked or joins in after the tour has started, or leaves prior to the completion of the tour, no refund will be made for any part of the tour including food, excursions, accommodation, etc., that are not used or undertaken.

INSURANCE The tour operator and/or its agents are not responsible or liable for loss, damage or theft of luggage or personal belongings whatsoever, nor for personal injury, accidents, hospitalization, illness or medical expenses. In our experience, most claims arise from personal or close-family illness before holiday departure, resulting in cancellation charges.

We strongly recommend all intending passengers consult their travel or insurance agent and take out adequate travel insurance to cover events that may affect your ability to travel (including, but not limited to, health, baggage, loss of monies through cancellation, additional expenses incurred through illness or personal liability prior to travel and early return, for example, following the death of a relative).

CLIMATE Winter in the tropical north is the dry season and temperatures will be mild with low humidity. Through the months of September and October, the temperatures become increasingly warmer.

FITNESS Our tours have been designed to suit a reasonable level of fitness; the ability to be able to do some walking along nature trails and cope with remoteness is essential. People suffering from lack of tolerance or not of general good health should consult their GP before taking part on these tours.

Please Note: Passengers accept that it is their responsibility to ensure that their health is in a state which will allow them to enjoy the tour and successfully complete the activities that the tour offers.

If you are unsure, we highly recommend seeking advice from your GP.
